

Deb Bowen's CroneWorks Newsletter

December, 2010

Vol. 5, No. 9

Welcome to my periodic newsletter! CroneWorks is an organization I chair that promotes peace and spiritual understanding around the globe. We offer workshops, retreats and rituals throughout the year.

Shining the Light: Holiday Blessings To You!

So many world beliefs celebrate the returning of the light this time of year with joyful celebrations: Christmas, Chanukah, Yule, Kwanza, and more. We honor the coming of the light with celebrations begun in on or near the darkest day of the year – a true test of our faith that the spinning of the wheel of the year will, indeed, continue to spin toward gentleness and kindness. With so much turmoil in the world around us, I invite you to be a beacon for hope and peace for yourself and all those around you. Tread gently on Mother Earth. As we move into a new calendar year, I wish you blessings, joy, love, and time for reflection and gratitude.
